May 5th is "Children's Day" in Japan.

It is also called "Tango no Sekku", it used to be a day for boy's festival. People put up carp-shaped streamers outside and display a "Gogatsu Ningyo" such as an armor, a war helmet, a doll wearing them and so on in the house. People eat a rice cake wrapped in bamboo leaves called Chimaki, and a rice cake wrapped in an oak leaf called Kashiwamochi. People put iris leaves and roots in the bath. It is believed that it will purge noxious vapor.
